

Get Out: September

::ART::

NATURE MADE

Sept 3–Oct 2 Celebrate the approach of fall with the Wheaton Arts and Cultural Center's exhibit "Nature Inspired." Artists examine the unique role of nature in contemporary art through glass, ceramics, wood, metal and jewelry, such as Laurel Springs resident John Marselis's "Wildflower" vase below. Tues–Sun, 10 AM–5 PM; free. 1501 Glasstown Rd, Millville (800-998-4552; wheatonarts.org).

::FOOD & WINE::

CHEERS TO NJ!

Sept 9–11 The culinary and wine worlds' attention turns to Jersey this month as celebrity chefs, sommeliers and winemakers converge at the Grand Summit Hotel for the third annual Summit Wine and Food Festival. On the menu are a variety of cooking demonstrations, seminars and tastings, mixology presentations and food-and-wine pairing dinners. Proceeds benefit the Community Food Bank of New Jersey, whose Food Service Training Academy students volunteer behind the scenes. Call for times and ticket information. 570 Springfield Ave, Summit (908-277-6565; summitwineandfood.com).

28 Sun	29 Mon	30 Tue	31 Wed	1 Thur	2 Fri	3 Sat
-----------	-----------	-----------	-----------	-----------	----------	----------

Sept 1 Multi-Grammy Award-winner and Rock & Roll Hall of Fame inductee Stevie Nicks performs songs from her four-decade career at the PNC Bank Arts Center. 8 PM; $20–$175. 117 Route 34, Holmdel (732-203-2500; livenation.com).

4 Sun	5 Mon	6 Tue	7 Wed	8 Thur	9 Fri	10 Sat
----------	----------	----------	----------	-----------	----------	-----------

Sept 8–25 ReVision Theatre presents the East Coast premiere of The Break-Up Notebook, a musical comedy for anybody who has ever been dumped and lived to tell about it. Wed–Sat, 8 PM; Sun, 7 PM; $18–$53. 700 Ocean Ave, Asbury Park (732-455-3059; revisiontheatre.org).

11 Sun	12 Mon	13 Tue	14 Wed	15 Thur	16 Fri	17 Sat
-----------	-----------	-----------	-----------	------------	-----------	-----------

Sept 16–25 The 15th annual Cape May Food & Wine Celebration features 10 days of events and activities, including the new Scotch-tasting dinner and a self-guided wine tour. Call for times and ticket information. Cape May (609-884-5404; capemaymag.org).

Sept 17 Climb, dig, roar and explore the Garden State Discovery Museum's new 2,000-square-foot Dinosaurium, featuring a dig site, a laboratory and a three-story climb-a-saurus. Mon–Sun, 9:30 AM–5:30 PM; $9.95–$10.95. 2040 Springdale Rd, Cherry Hill (856-424-1233; discoverymuseum.com).

18 Sun	19 Mon	20 Tue	21 Wed	22 Thur	23 Fri	24 Sat
-----------	-----------	-----------	-----------	------------	-----------	-----------

Sept 24 Bound Brook's eighth annual Riverfest features live music, food, rides and games, artists and crafters, a climbing wall, pony rides, a petting zoo, face painting, jugglers, karate demonstrations and dance performances, as well as an area devoted to the graham cracker, invented in Bound Brook in 1829 by Rev. Sylvester Graham. 10 AM–5 PM; free. Main St, Bound Brook (201-998-6311).

25 Sun	26 Mon	27 Tue	28 Wed	29 Thur	30 Fri	1 Sat
-----------	-----------	-----------	-----------	------------	-----------	----------

Thru Sept 25 The Visual Arts Center's exhibition "Jersey Bounce" presents works (selected by New Jersey-based curators) that celebrate the practice of colleagues bouncing ideas off one another. Mon–Thurs, 9:30 AM–8 PM; Fri, 9:30 AM–5 PM; Sat–Sun, 10 AM–4 PM; $3–$5. 68 Elm St, Summit (732-335-0033 x104; artcenternj.org).

::STAGE::

STOP THE PRESSES

Sept 15–Oct 16 Read all about it! Paper Mill Playhouse presents the premiere of the brand-new musical Newsies, adapted from the popular Disney film. Based on the 1899 true story of a courageous group of scrappy newsboys who became unlikely heroes when they rallied forces to fight an unscrupulous newspaper tycoon, Newsies features a rousing score, rollicking choreography and a defy-all-odds inspirational story. Call for times; $25–$96. 22 Brookside Dr, Millburn (973-376-4343; papermill.org).

PHOTOS: VASE—“WILDFLOWER” BY JOHN MARSELIS COURTESY NOELLE ALAMPI; WINE GLASSES—PHOTOS.COM; NEWSIES—COURTESY PAPER MILL PLAYHOUSE